Attorney General McGraw Names Scott Depot's Cathy Larck To Citizen's Advisory Committee

CHARLESTON – Citing her extensive involvement in community groups and civic organizations, West Virginia Attorney General Darrell McGraw has chosen Cathy Larck of Scott Depot for his Citizens Advisory Committee.

"I consider it a privilege to serve on the Attorney General's committee and help others in my community," says Ms. Larck, a veteran of public service.

Created by McGraw in 2007, the Citizens Advisory Committee reaches out to communities throughout the State as part of the Attorney General's effort to provide personalized access to consumer protection resources for all West Virginians. It offers consumers with questions and complaints the opportunity for direct contact with a representative of the Attorney General's Office. Larck is the newest of the Committee's 34 citizen advisors.

"Opening channels of communication through our consumer advisors is one of the most effective tools that my office can use in educating consumers," Attorney General McGraw said. "It enables our citizens to make smarter choices and reduces unnecessary litigation."

Vice President of the West Virginia Federal Credit Union's Board of Directors, Larck also serves on the Friends in Need Committee for Union Carbide, which provides benefit information to nearly 12,000 retirees in the Kanawha Valley. Larck also served as past President of the Putnam County Democrat Women and a former administrative assistant for State Senators Tracy Dempsey and Ron Stollings. Larck was selected Democrat of the Year in 2008.

Ms. Larck graduated from Nitro High School and went on to study business at Morris Harvey (now the University of Charleston). She had two children with her late husband, W.A. "Bill" Larck, and has taught classes for women and children at the Church of Christ in Scott Depot.
